Charles Elbert Gray, Jr was born on August 8, 1973 to the late Charles Elbert Gray, Sr and the late Diane Downs-Gray. Charles was proceeded in death by his eldest sister Ramona Gray; and leaves to cherish his memories his younger sisters Ayesha Karreem and Rukyiah Williams, daughter Jaterra Gray, grandson Temerous Gadsden, Jr, Niece Kylea Jones, a special aunt Pamela V. Offer, a host of Uncles, Aunts and Cousins. Charles was affectionately known as “Jr” by his family and close friends. Charles attended public school in Anne Arundel County. He went on to do various jobs in sales. Charles loved to have fun, whether it was going to amusement parks, out to nightclubs to party or to see various Rap artists, showing off his latest dance moves, he would even drive around without directions looking for the newest club. He was so spoiled being the only brother with three sisters catering to his every need. As much as Charles will be missed, comfort is found knowing that he’s no longer just existing, he’s now back in the company of Daddy, Mommy, Mona and Grandma LT. Jr you’re free.
