Daniel Patrick Moloney

APR 11, 1975 - OCT 18, 2025

Daniel Patrick Moloney was born into this world on April 11, 1975 in the suburbs of Chicago to his mother Jacqueline. As a child Dan attended Catholic schools, eventually graduating from Catholic Central High School in Burlington Wisconsin in 1993. Dan kept those years busy by not only excelling in his academics, but by playing football, baseball, basketball, or any sport he could manage to get to play; he loved his sports!

Dan moved away for college, attending New Mexico State University graduating with a degree in communications in 2001. He then moved back north to Cleveland and attended Case Western Reserve University where he got his Juris Doctor or JD degree, allowing him to practice the law. Dan made his way to Maryland shortly after graduation. He spent many years working for insurance companies in workers' compensation cases, until he moved to the other table and opened his law firm, Moloney Law in 2014, specializing in workers' compensation for the injured. Dan had a goal of "Helping People Become Whole", which was more than a marketing line, but a mantra of how Dan practiced law.

Dan and Stacey welcomed two wonderful children, Natalie and Cooper, whom he loved dearly. When not with his children or work, he enjoyed sports of all kinds, reading, and most of all playing golf! Dan was preceded in death by his grandparents, Grandma and Papa Naughton, who were instrumental in his life. He leaves his children Natalie and Cooper, his mother Jacqueline, sister Tricia, many loving Aunts and Uncles, 12 cousins and too many friends to count all to mourn him.

Mariah White lit a candle in honor of Daniel.

Dan was my basketball coach when I was in 3rd and 4th grade. Me and his daughter played on Severna Park rec league. He showed me what a real coach is. He taught me things I didn't know. I had so much fun playing on that team I wanted to keep coming back. Now I am an AAU player and I wouldn't be where I am without him. Thank you for showing me what a real coach is, you will be missed.

I just received the horrible news, and my heart is truly heavy. I was Dan's very first injury case under his own firm. I'll never forget how he personally asked his former employer if he could continue working with me so that I could become his first client as he stepped out on his own. That meant everything to me. I appreciated Dan deeply, not just as an attorney, but as a man who shared my love and passion for sports and for helping others. In his honor, my organization Davis Athletics Development will be hosting a memorial basketball game to celebrate his life, his legacy, and the impact he made. I am still at a loss for words at this devastating news. My sincerest condolences go out to his wife, his children, his family, and his friends. May God bring them strength, comfort, and peace during this incredibly difficult time. Rest in peace, Dan. You will truly be missed. 🙏

Never had the opportunity to meet Daniel. What I know for sure is how much he was loved by his mother, Jackie. When Jackie talked about Dan her 'mama bear' love and pride was on full display. The world has lost a good man. May your grieving hearts be comforted.

It's funny how certain memories just stick with you. I was just thinking about the very first time I met Danny. I was new to the family, dating his Uncle Buzz at the time. It was Aunt Pats Christmas gathering. The adults were upstairs and I distinctly remember going downstairs and stepping into a whole other world. The basement was an explosion of pure kid energy. Danny and his cousins were all running and jumping around. There was Danny a little dynamo who simply could not sit still. I knew then that this energetic little boy could never be happy settling for a conventional run-of-the-mill career path. He was destined for a life filled with movement, challenge, and continuous growth. He had that adventurous spirit right from the start. He leaves a wonderful legacy, his children Natalie and Cooper. Danny you will be deeply missed but never forgotten . Your memories will be forever in our hearts. This not goodbye only a good way to say bye until I see you again. I love you ❤️ Danny boy!

Dan was a really fun and generous guy. To be a friend of Dan's meant warm smiles, hugs and great times. It also meant having to fight with him just to be able to pay for your own drink. It also meant we had the best flag football QB for all those BSSC years. Even though we'd go long stretches without seeing each other, I will really miss you, buddy.

I first met Dan when my father had asked me to play a round of golf with them two. I had just finished my junior year of college and needed a job, and after sharing that information with Dan, he didn't hesitate to offer the opportunity to work part time in his law office until I went back to school. Fast forward two years later, and I was working full time for him. To me, that shows just the type of man Dan was. He was so generous, thoughtful and caring. He would always go the extra mile whenever I needed help with anything. We both shared a great passion for sports and whenever something happened with Ravens or the Os, he was the first person I would talk to. Dan was a great boss, a great mentor, a great role model and most importantly, someone I could call a great friend. He made a lasting impact on everyone around him and he will be sorely missed by all.

In Loving Memory of Daniel Moloney The sudden loss of Daniel Moloney has left a void that can never be filled. For 11 years, working under his leadership wasn't just a job—it was being part of a family. Dan wasn't just our boss; he was our friend, our mentor, and our biggest supporter. He led with heart, humor, and unwavering loyalty. We always had his back, and he always had ours. His presence brought light into our workplace, and his absence is deeply felt in every corner of our company. Dan was one of a kind. There will never be another like him. His favorite phrase—"Tell me you love me"—was more than just words; it was a reflection of the warmth and connection he fostered with each of us. Our crazy conversations, his laughter, and his genuine care will echo in our hearts forever. Thank you, Dan the Man, for everything. You will always hold a special place in our lives, and your legacy will live on in the spirit of this firm. You are deeply missed, and forever loved. With heartfelt gratitude and sorrow,— Diana Guerrero and all of us at Moloney Law

Dan and I would always talk about the bars and restaurants in Canton that he used to go to when he lived in Baltimore. He would always ask if they were still around and if I had ever been. During those conversations, we discovered that Walt's Inn was one of our shared favorites. I have so many wonderful memories with "Uncle Dan" that I will carry with me forever.
