I remember summer vacations at my grandparents farm outside of Quail Texas, Mazine and my Mom(Della Faye) sitting on the swing porch arguing as usual but yet enjoying each other's company. I guess that is what all sisters do. I have many found memories visiting her and family in the Maryland area. It always amazed me how even though years may go by- when we saw each other it was like no time had passed. Mazine will be missed. Love to all. Her niece Cindy

Mazine will be missed by all of us in the Haun family. She was a loving caring mother-in law, grandmother (Meemom) to my children and great grand mother to my grand children. Going to Ocean City will not be the same especially Smitty McGee's. Love Robert

I always liked and had great respect for Mazine and Della Fay. They were two of my dad's favorite cousins. (I'm Spencer Coleman's oldest daughter) They were both interesting and accomplished ladies, with fun stories to share. We lived in Northern Virginia for some of the years when Mazine and her family lived in Maryland. Mazine did many positive things in her life, and at each point she worked to overcome personal challenges to have an amazing life. I hope to be able to come for the service ! Love to her family, Kellye Coleman Sheehan
