

Bonnie Mary Aguglia

March 4, 1943 - July 29, 2017

Bonnie Aguglia of Arnold, Maryland passed away on Saturday, July 29, 2017. Born Bonnie Mary Stimple on March 4, 1943 in Dunkirk, New York, she held a deep and abiding commitment to her friends and family. A lifelong resident of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Bonnie served as a social worker while bringing up her three loving daughters before relocating to an Annapolis suburb in Maryland to be close to her granddaughter Ava. Bonnie, lively in spirit and full of compassion, adored her pets and grandpets, perhaps most of all, her beloved cats Baby and Lucy and dog Rooney. Bonnie cherished the times with her family, especially during holiday gatherings, delighting in the good fortune of her daughters and grandchildren. Bonnie is survived by daughters Joanne Aguglia (Shawn Taylor), Dawn Bryan (Rob), and Gayle Aguglia (William Costa) and her two doting grandchildren, Josh Taylor and Ava Bryan.

“ Gayle, I offer my sincere condolences since your dearest mother has gone to heaven. Bonnie was interested in everyone she knew at our home. Everyone she met liked her very much and she cared for each person she met. I did not feel as if she was a stranger, but like a dear friend that I knew for many years. If there is anything I can do for your sisters or you, please let me know. God bless your sisters and you and my prayers go out to all of you. May God rest on your pillow and give you peace.

“ To my dear friend Bonnie, you will always be in my heart. We shared talks, letters, books, and grand dogs. I'll miss the memories we shared. I will never forget how kind you were to my husband and the love you showed Gayle on her birthday. You light up the heavens with your smile. Goodbye to a mother, grandmother and friend.

“ Gayle , JoAnne and Dawn, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your mom. She was the most generous compassion caring person I knew! I see the traits were past on to you! She was so proud of you girls! She really made a great impression on everyone she met! She was a great listener! You are in my thoughts and prayers! Gone from our sight but never from our hearts!
