“ When we moved in to Heritage Harbour and Bill spotted Joe, he said “I know that guy.” Once he learned his name, he was able to place Joe at Ft. Holabird in the 60s. Both men were stationed there. Through the next six years, Bill and Joe always had something to talk about. Joe was clever. Joe was funny. Joe was a dedicated community member who volunteered many hours as president of our condo association. He and Pat were a good team and became good friends of ours. Joe will be sorely missed. Our hearts are heavy.

“ We met Joe and Pat at the first Heritage Harbour Friday night dance we attended nearly 9 years ago, and the four of us clicked. Over the years we have shared happy hours, dinners, outings and vacations. . . and lots of laughs. Joe had a great sense of humor and a quick wit. He was bright and well-informed, and enjoyed a lively debate. It doesn't seem possible that he is gone; but in our minds we will always hold his memory close.

Our deepest sympathy to the family.

“ Joe was what I would call "an all around good guy". Always had a smile for us "early birds" at the Heritage Harbour Fitness Center. With his wise counsel and helpful comments he made everyone who encountered him feel important. His leadership skills continued way beyond the years he worked for money.... they followed him into the retirement years with many volunteer activities. His love of family was evident and so was his commitment to friends. Joe will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

He leaves his beloved Pat with a community full of supportive and loving friends.
"Joe, know that she's in good hands!"

G-d Bless you all,
