

Richard Thomas Sisas

June 5, 1940 - February 21, 2020

Richard “Dick” Thomas Sisas, 79, of Annapolis, died on Friday, February 21, 2020 with his loving daughter Dianna by his side. He was born in Brooklyn, New York on June 5, 1940 to the late Richard and Amy Sisas (Moore). He graduated from George Westinghouse Vocational Technical High School and enlisted in the U.S. Navy in 1958, only to be honorably discharged six months later due to the death of his father.

In December 10, 2019, Dick was pre-deceased by the love of his life of 58 years, Carol Ann Sisas. He was also pre-deceased by his eldest daughter Dawn Marie Sisas and his brother John Robert Sisas. Dick is leaving behind his children Rick, Dianna, Dan, and David, daughter-in-law Meropi “Bobbi” and sister in-law Diane Rinaldi.

Dick and Carol married on September 23, 1961 and soon after started a family in Brooklyn, New York. They moved to Holtsville, Long Island, New York where the kids kept coming, until they happily settled into the bustling, chaotic, laughter-filled life of a family of 7.

Dick began his career selling commercial kitchen equipment, smallwares and wiping cloths, where he quickly excelled as the number one salesman, and embraced the name ‘Ragman.’ The company relocated his family to Maryland in 1978. Soon after, Dick launched his very own Sisas Industries. In the years to come his sons Rick, Dan and David followed their father’s footsteps and joined the newly formed Take Two Unlimited. The family business grew to be extremely successful, meeting the needs of customers while spreading the humor and kindness that reflected Dick’s easy nature.

With his quick wit and playful heart, Dick’s ability to find levity in any situation was his trademark. He brought joy, laughter and most often a clever nickname to all who knew him. Dick loved music and could often be found whistling or singing, sharing his belief that “you cannot whistle and worry, you cannot sing and worry at the same time.” In essence, Dick embodied the ability and resiliency to navigate the most difficult of life scenarios with kindness and grace.

Dick and Carol spent the last 8 years of their lives in West Palm Beach, Florida where they enjoyed the warmth, sunshine and companionship of Dick’s closest childhood cousins, Carol and Richie. Beloved husband, father, cousin, uncle and friend, Dick will be dearly missed.

“ My deepest condolences Rick.

May your memories with your Mom and Dad warm your heart always.

Life isn't about the journey, it's about people the people you meet along the way. Your parents did a great job having such a dedicated and loving son.

God Bless You and Yours.

“ I am so sorry to hear about the passing of my Uncle Dick. The time I was able to spend with him during those rare family visits are some of my favorite childhood memories. I find comfort knowing that he is back with my Aunt and all of his suffering has ended. To Ricky, David, Diana, and Danny I pray that you have the strength to get through this difficult time. God Bless you all.

“ How I hate having to write on this Tribute Wall again....I am heartbroken over the loss of my brother-in-law. Dick had a unique personality and humor that can never be duplicated and he will be missed by those of us who were lucky enough to know him. His top priority was his family and his love for them was endless. The last few months were very difficult for him and he told me how proud he was of Rick, Dianna, Danny, David and Bobbi....and how he could not have gotten through it without their support and love. Yes they are devastated, but they know he is where he wanted to be. It was always "Carol and Dick"...and now they are together again. I just know I will love and miss them forever...

Diane Rinaldi - February 28 at 02:34 PM

“ thank you for your support Aund Diane. this has been a lot. so glad to hear he was grateful for our support. i will always feel like i could have/ should have done more for them both. i am just so very sad. my heart is shredded.

“ Sending my love and prayers to you all, who have been through so much lately, my heart is broken for all of you... Uncle Dick, or as I liked to call him for obvious reasons, Uncle Bubba...was a great man, full of personality! When he and Auntie Carol visited, they brought so much fun and laughter with them.. I find comfort in knowing he is with Auntie Carol and Dawn, my dad, and Grandma and Grandpa...

Forever in all of our hearts... xoxo

Love, Kristen

Kristen Arpaia - February 27 at 04:08 PM

“ Thank you Kristen for your sweet words. This has been a very difficult time. I share your "Uncle Bubba" story a lot. My Dad did too. It brought him a chuckle. Poor Dickie. It may be his name that turned him into the fun loving, kind, humble man that he was. Finding it hard to say "was." Such a bright, vibrant spirit who could find humor in everything. Love to you and your family.

Dianna Sisas - February 28 at 08:54 PM

“ I never did understand how they got Dick from Richard.. LOL.. and I just couldn't call him that ;) ... your mom even signed all her christmas cards to me "Love Auntie Carol and Uncle Bubba"... I am sad we didn't see eachother more... but when we did I just loved being around all of you!

I am sorry you're going thru this, its just too sad... I pray God gives you and your brothers the strength you need at this time xoxo

Kristen Arpaia - March 01 at 06:20 PM
