“ Oh What Love!!! This was such a loving and inspiring Celebration of Life! So many wonderful testaments of a fulfilling life of loving, giving and caring! What a legacy your Mom has imparted in the earth. She has blessed us with you her husband, children, grandchildren and family to continue in the love she has so freely given. Our world is so much better because of her! She is now a part of a great cloud of witnesses cheering us on! So Family, Be Encouraged For Her Living Is Not In Vain! She is absent from the body but well alive in the Spirit forever and eternally. Thanks for sharing her loving character and spirit with us all. I cried, laughed and rejoiced throughout this Celebration of Life! Mrs. Morgan & Family I send love, hugs and prayers Mrs. Carr

“ Rob and family, There are no words to put in this tribute to let you know how sorry I am. Tish has always been a caring person, a go to person and great friend. Tish ,Sandy and I taught GA's and Acteens for many years and we had so many fun rewarding times with the girls teaching them mission work and learning about Jesus. I feel honored to have known her for over 35 years. So fly high my friend and keep a eye on all of us here on earth, until we meet at those pearly gates. My thoughts and prayers are with you and the family.

“ I have know Tish since she married Rob and have know Rob long enough to be able to call him Ralph without consequence. Since my wife Sandy and I live in Salisbury we would almost always see Rob and Tish when they came to Ocean City.and of course that meant Tish cooking and us eating and what a pleasure that was. In early 2018 I needed a cornea transplant which was mentioned in conversation.Tish asked where it would be done and when I said Johns Hopkins she said without pause "O, I can take you and you can stay with us". So on Feb 28, 2018 Tish drove us like a mad taxi driver to Johns Hopkin, stayed during the surgery,drove back home and then cooked dinner. Like the nurse that she was she made sure I followed all the recovery rules and took care of me for 3 or 4 days and discharged me to Salisbury. Tish was someone special and I think we all are a little better off to have known her!

“ Tish and I were roommates after graduation from WHC. She helped me grow into independence. We had a crazy year of dating Naval academy, grads, were in each other's first weddings, and stayed in contact through the years. Thoughts of Tish will forever bring happy memories. I wish she could have lived longer, but what a wonderful life she led.

“ From the very first time I met her, she welcomed me. She didn't have to nor would most people in our circumstance, but she did and did it so well because I felt loved for the last 7 years by her. She opened her home to me and was my “roomie” while our house was being built. Those months were filled with lots of Jeopardy, homemadet dinners (an extra 10lbs in result), and chats that I will forever remember. I loved being a taste tester of any new recipe she found and she always hit a home run. She coined the term "taster-bite" in our house. Her advice was straight forward and always the right thing to so. Her faith inspires me still. She raised 2 women who are people I strive to be like in all of the best ways. I reached out to her for advice or to share a funny cat meme. She helped me in more ways than she even knew but I hope she knew how much I loved her because it sure was a lot. Fly high AT!

“ I don't know where to begin. What am I going to do without my "old shoe". You referred to me as that nine years ago when our friendship blossomed! I didn't know whether or not to be offended, but after your explanation - I am extremely honored to have been your "old shoe". Someone that you always feel comfortable around regardless of who you are around or where you are - you just "fit". I will miss you until we meet again - because "Friends are Friends forever if the Lord's the Lord of them, and a friend will not say never, because the welcome will not end. Though it's hard to let you go into the Father's hands we know, but a lifetime's not too long to live as friends!

“ Tish was my roommate at WHC School of Nursing & a lifetime friend. Tish pierced my ears at WHC. My right ear piercing is crooked! Everytime I put earrings in, I will always think of Tish. My prayers are with her family at this very difficult time. Tish, I will see you at Heavens Gate.

“ I lost my best friend. Tish and I worked together since 1999. She taught me how to say NO to people who took advantage of me. She taught me to sew and created a monster in me. Thank you for always being there with me and being my friend. We shared so many things. I will miss you.

“ I know Tish will always be look over her family, Tish loved them all so fiercely. As energetic as Tish was, her heart was that good, warm and giving too. Tish was a really great and knowledgeable Nurse. As a student she had a deaf white kitten, who ran in circles. It was hard to give her up. Love
